The sale of ninety-six copper cents amounted to $281.17, and forty-eight copper half cents to $135; and the proceeds from the whole catalogue, $205.7; being the largest sale ever made in this city, and higher figures than have ever before been realized. Only think of it, twenty-three dollars and fifty cents for a single half cent!

AN EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF COINS—

Arrangement of a sale of the late of American silver and copper coins, medals, medals, experimental and Washington pieces, was effected on Tuesday evening, at the store of Mr. Edward Seligman, No. 11 North Fourth street. The sale was conducted by Mr. W. H. Green, auctioneer. The attendance was quite large in consideration of the position of the market, which appears to almost all hands to be good, the bidding was unusually rapid. Among the numerous buyers of this day present, we noticed Messrs. Haynes, Davis, Swan, Latham, Thompson, Johnson, Jones, Edwards and Mearns, and Messrs. May, Sherman, Benson and Haines of New York. To give our readers some idea of prices for this evening, we have abstracted from Mr. Green's list of the prices given as follows:—
